

REVISION VOL. 1. No. 1 (2020)

S.2 GEOGRAPHY

TOPIC ONE: LANDFORMS FORMED BY FAULTING IN EAST AFRICA

1. (a) Describe the formation of the Great East African Rift Valley.
(b) Explain the positive significance of the Great East African Rift Valley to the people of East African.
(c) Describe the problems associated with the East African Rift Valley.
(d) Identify four Rift Valley lakes in East Africa.
2. (a) Describe the formation of the Block Mountains in East Africa.
(b) Explain the positive benefits of the Block Mountains to the surrounding areas in East Africa.
(c) Describe the problems associated with Block mountains to the nearby surroundings.
(d) Identify any three examples of Block Mountains in East Africa.

TOPIC TWO: ROCKS IN EAST AFRICA

3. (a) Define a Rock.
(b) (i) Differentiate between intrusive igneous and Extrusive Igneous rocks in East Africa and three examples of each.
(ii) Differentiate between organically formed and mechanically formed sedimentary rocks and give two examples of each.
(c) Explain the positive significance of rocks to people.
(d) Outline the problems associated with rocks.

TOPIC THREE: VOLCANICITY IN EAST AFRICA

4. (a) Differentiate between volcanicity and vulcanicity.
- (b) (i) Explain the causes of volcanicity.
- (ii) Describe the intrusive volcanic features and extrusive volcanic features in East Africa with diagrams and examples.
- (c) Explain the positive benefits of volcanic features to the people of East Africa.
- (d) Explain the problems associated with the volcanic mountains in East Africa.

END.

